About

Research Hub is a vibrant, dynamic collaborative space for community of researchers to undertake their research, network and collaborate. It is designed as an incubator and accelerator of policy solutions.

WHY JOIN US

1. Policy research training, mentorship, and networking opportunities.
2. Knowledge sharing and policy dialogues between researchers, policymakers, and the public.
3. Incubation of new small group initiatives, innovative ideas, and policy solutions.
4. Stronger research collaboration and partnerships.
5. Access to Co-working/learning space, library, and research database.

OUR FACILITIES

Our facilities include: co-working/learning space, meeting rooms, library and research database.

ENTRANCE 'SMILEY'

- Daily check-ins or membership sign-up.
- Lockers for keeping personal belongings.
- Feature announcements, event schedules or rules.

RECEPTION AREA

A short-term waiting and settling-in zone for guests before moving to dedicated workspaces. Not bookable or occupiable.

- HelpDesk space: perfect for quick peer chats, advisor check-ins, or solo reading (news, books) without booking.
- Chat friendly but respect other co-workers.

COMMUNITY KITCHEN "TIME-OUT"

- A vibrant, high-traffic stop for water, coffee, drinks, and snacks to encourage time-out.
- Not bookable or lingering to allow for movements to other areas. No personal dishes in sink.

LIBRARY "THORMATRAI"

- A strictly quiet reading space that offers many collections of books, reports, and terminals.
- Access databases on-site: microeconomic dataset, academic journals, and online subscriptions (The Economist, Diplomat, New York Times, etc.)
- Put your bags in the lockers before entering. No noise, food or drinks (except water) are allowed in the library.

LECTURE & STUDIO 'ANAKUT' ROOM

- Perfect for 15-25 person lecture and training in a casual classroom style.
- Studio mode with production-ready backdrop for video and podcast.
- Priority-based booking basis. No food or drinks (except water) allowed.

CO-WORKING SPACE "CHEUNG MEK/HORIZON"

- A multi-functional space for co-working, co-learning, large-group training, seminars, policy dialogues and networking events.
- Flexible for 30 - 100 people. Priority-based booking for events.
- Chat friendly but respect other members.
